

Donald Harvey Pourciau

December 16, 1973 - September 19, 2017

Donald Harvey Pourciau, a native of Baton Rouge and resident of Denham Springs, died peacefully on Tuesday, September 19, 2017 at the age of 43.

Donald is survived his wife, Linda Ebald Pourciau; children, Ariel and Joshua Pourciau, Brooklyn Graham, Katie and Eugene Williams; his brother and best friend, Lucas Persilver and his wife Sharon; other brothers, Bill and his wife Lena, Tommy, and William Harvey Persilver Jr.; sisters, Sarah Faye, Deanie Faye, Mary Persilver, Linda Sue Loftin; mother, Theresa Ann Pourciau; uncles Sidney Persilver and his wife Sharon, Adoulphus "Eddie" Wheat and his wife Wanda; brother-in-law Andrew Paul Knecht, and his close friend Michael Chauvin.

He is preceded in death by his father William Harvey Persilver, his uncle Charles Persilver, and his grandparents.

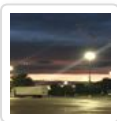

A celebration of Donald's life will be held at a later time and date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the family for the current and future educational expenses of his children.

Comments

“ I am so grateful and blessed to have known and shared the past 13 years of my life with Donald,"(Duck)" Pourcia as my friend and my bro!! He called me sis and he was the closest thing to a real brother that I will ever have. He treated me and my kids as if we were family! I cherish the memories that I have of him, remembering all dinners we shared, all the laughs, the conversations of our plans for the future, the disagreements that turned to heated discussions or debates, and even the tears, both happy and sad. Mostly I'm gonna miss having my bro to call when I needed. He was a really good person with a huge heart under that tough exterior. Would help anyone who asked for it! :-) Last time he moved back to Bartlesville from Louisiana, he drove in the winter, in a snow storm, all cramped in a truck, on the road all night, he was exhausted when he got here. It had snowed all night, I didn't own a shovel, I needed to go to work, but couldn't get my car out, my bro came to my rescue that morning, he pulls up in his pick up truck, shovel in hand, gloves and coat on, and he cleared the snow from the entire driveway, he warmed up my car, and scraped off the windshield just so I could get my youngest to school and me to work!!! He cursed that snow and blistering cold wind with every breath, but didn't hesitate to lend me a hand when I needed it most. He even tossed a snowball at me, right in the face, he got me good too!! :-) I'm going to miss him so very much now that he's gone. I miss his cooking, I miss watching football games with him. I miss having coffee the morning and talking about what do when our daughter's think they are ready date. Oh, I will miss him every day, I'm so thankful for the time we had, the memories that I hold and I find comfort in knowing that someday we will meet again on the otherside. The Lord has my taken my bro, ended his pain and suffering last. May he find the peace he truly deserves!

Mary Sellers - December 09, 2017 at 10:58 AM

“ He gave me a hard time growing up. Like brothers do. Then we spent many years apart without knowing each other. Then he sent me a letter. We was finally on the right path. Conversations went to phones and never stopped. Then a few years ago he had a court day and got custody of his HEART. That week he was at my house. We talked worked drank coffee smoked cigarettes and ate together. When he was on his way home, at the Greyhound from BR to Bartlesville I CRIED when him and Brooklyn left. I didn't want to see him leave. Then he moved home.

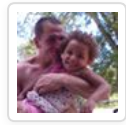

My brother is gone now, but I WON'T FORGET HIM.
I Loved him more in that little time then he'll ever know.

But, I'll see him one day. Because he gave his life to GOD.

LOVE YOU BRO

Joseph Persilver - September 23, 2017 at 10:52 PM

“ I loved him to Lucas how you doing man

Tommy - October 03, 2017 at 04:29 PM

“ We talked about everything and I ask him what ever I want to he was there for me when I need to talk. He will be miss so much mary persilver - September 21, 2017 at 12:47 AM

“ I'm one of he's sis we talk on the phone ever other day I'm going to miss talk to him. I love and will miss him.

mary persilver - September 20, 2017 at 07:25 PM

“ I remember when he came to my rescue and helped me get my flat tire fixed. He loved my mom, sister, and brothers so much. I will miss him.

Erin Olivera - September 20, 2017 at 05:16 PM