“ After 35 years with Hampie as my next door neighbor we shared much & loved much. She was like my momma, my prayer warrior and the sweetest friend. she loved our boys and was part of our family and as the years went by that love transferred on to our grandchildren. Claire & Wyatt will miss running up to see her after school for those hugs, kisses and candy canes. For me I will miss our talks and prayer time. She taught me many things about our Lord and Savior. As my prayer warrior she taught me to pray right then and there. I will carry all my memories of her with me always. I am thankful I have no regrets. And can give honor to our Lord for Hampie Jean McDonald.

“ Extending my deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother, daughter, sister, and my friend. Hampie was also so thoughtful and nice to me and my family, but this is a "Gallman" trait. My thoughts and prayers are with Hampie's brother (my brother in law, David) his brothers and Ms Ruby.
