

Amelia Rae Hall

December 9, 2025 - December 9, 2025

In the tender embrace of heaven, Amelia Rae Hall graced this world on December 9, 2025, in Tampa, Florida. Though her time with us was fleeting, she was a radiant light, baptized in her hospital room mere moments after her arrival, a symbol of purity and blessing. Amelia was a little miracle, our heaven-sent angel, cherished by all who had the privilege to know her.

She leaves behind a loving family: her devoted mother, Loren Cureton, and father, Glenn Hall III. Grandparents Mandy Baham and Byron Cureton, along with Cynthia Hall and Glenn Hall Jr., will forever carry her memory in their hearts. She is survived by her uncles, Greg Hall, Kyle Dugas, and Tyler Baham, and her beloved aunt Mimi Hall. Great-grandmothers Lorali Sibley and Dorothy Hall, alongside her great-grandfather Glenn Hall Sr., hold dear the fleeting joy Amelia brought in her short time with us, as do her grandmother, Sue Hall, and all who were touched by her brief yet profound presence.

Although Amelia's journey was brief, her spirit will forever resonate within the hearts of her family and friends, serving as a gentle reminder of the love and joy she inspired. Her memory will be cherished through the stories shared, the tears shed, and the smiles remembered. In every moment, she will be celebrated as a luminous light, forever illuminating the paths of those she left behind.

Amelia is preceded in death by: Hilda King, Jesse Baham Jr., Gene Cureton, Sharon Carmouche, and Ron Walter.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Mclin Funeral Home. Online condolences may be shared at www.mclinfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

LD

“ Love & hugs Mom & Dad purchased the "Always in My Heart" Antiqued Heart Locket Memorial for the family of Amelia Rae Hall.

Love & hugs Mom & Dad - December 20, 2025 at 09:11 AM