

Annie Kinchen Carpenter

February 2, 1928 - July 12, 2024

Annie Kinchen Carpenter, born on February 2nd, 1928, in Oldfield, Louisiana, passed away peacefully on July 12th, 2024, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. She was a dedicated wife, loving mother, and cherished community member.

Annie was a devoted floral gardener, dedicated wife, and homemaker who lovingly raised her twin boys, Danny and Lanny, in the church. She was also a beloved Sunday school teacher, imparting wisdom and faith to many young minds over the years. It is said when she first met her husband while she was working retail, she found him to be the most handsome man she had ever seen.

She is survived by her twin sons, Danny and Lanny, her brothers, Jerry Kinchen and Earl Kinchen, 10 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren. Annie was preceded in death by her husband, Edward L. Carpenter, and her six siblings.

Her unwavering dedication to her family and church was evident in every aspect of her life. She will be remembered for her kind heart, gentle spirit, and the beautiful flowers she nurtured with such care.

Please join the family in celebrating Annie's life on Wednesday, July 17th, 2024, from 9:30 am at Christ Community Church, 26574 Juban Road Denham

Springs, LA 70726, until Service starts at 11:00 am. Burial will follow at Old Red Oak Cemetery in Livingston. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Christ Community Church for the Hispanic ministry.

Arrangements have been entrusted to McLin Funeral Home. Online condolences may be shared at www.mclinfuneralhome.com

“ Mrs. Annie was the sweetest, kindest, Christian lady I ever met. She visited Glory Baptist Church years ago with her sister, Mrs. Pinkie. Mrs. Annie always had a smile and her love of God shone through her life all the time. I didn't know her real well, but you never forgot the love you felt when being around her. We are praying for your family during this time of sorrow. May God grant you all peace and comfort today and the to come. Friends in Christ, Gloria & Joe Farrister
