

Bobby Jean Barber

September 3, 1973 - February 22, 2026

Bobby Jean Barber (known as BJ, Mama, babe, babydoll, and – her favorite – Mimi) was born on 3 September 1973 at Lallie Kemp Hospital in Independence, Louisiana, to parents Bobby Beard Sr. of Liberty, Mississippi, and Patricia Irene Hartley of Rome, Georgia, and passed away on Sunday, February 22, 2026. She married Christopher Dewight Barber on 29 April 1992 at First United Pentecostal Church of Livingston, Louisiana. She always did claim that was one of the happiest days of her life.

Through her life, she held many occupations, but the most important to her was being a Stay-at-Home Mom and Wife to her four daughters. She got involved in just about anything and everything from the first field trips to the school marching band and even had an entire school system from elementary to high school afraid of her. She was very involved in anything her girls ever had a hand in.

Then, as things tend to do, there came the sons-in-law and grandchildren. She loved those babies almost more than life itself. She was there for every one of their births and wouldn't have had it any other way.

There are no words to explain just how much she touched every soul she ever came into contact with. She was a dear friend to many and much more to a very lucky few. She had no idea just how much she is truly loved and will be dearly missed.

Bobby Jean Barber is preceded in death by her father, Bobby Beard Sr.; her sister, Mary Stewart; two nieces, Rebecca and Elizabeth Lee Stewart; mother-in-law Peggy Barber; father-in-law Eugene Barber; brother-in-law Kelly Joe Barber; and a granddaughter, Mazelie Jean Milton.

Her pallbearers are James Jones, Trey Milton, Joshua Nickens, Tony Nickens, Coby Nickens, and Cameron Williams.
