“ Carl was my father as well as the other 4 children, I being the oldest. I got to finally meet my dad in the 1990s, as well as my half siblings. it was a a very special time for me. I see how the siblings and I resemble each other, I also saw how Carl and I were alike even knowing that he never got a chance to father me no thanks to my mothers choices. I have his temper Which now after Anger Management is curbed, I also saw the same in our feet, and our sense of humor, and I wish I really got to know him, more so than I did, I leave open for my sisters and Brother to get ahold of me and we try out learning about each other while we are still on this earth. I did enjoy the time I spent with them in LA. I'm Sorry Dad that we did'nt find the time, but with the 3 sibs we still have that time and I hope it brings us close somehow. Peace Dad, I burn a candle for you every year from this day forward on your birthday and the day you passed. Love Tifany L. Sorrenson
