“ Mom and I enjoyed the visit with your loved one last week at the nursing home. As always, we will miss seeing her beautiful smile. Loved seeing her come in Country Home to see us. Your family will be in our thoughts and prayers. With love, Barbara Ballard. Jessie Smith, and Brenda Edwards.

“ I met Ms Carolyn at PARDS Fitness. She always came in wearing a smile and giving testimony of what God was doing in her life. She loved to share the details of the latest sermon that she heard either during the Sunday morning service or a Bible study she was attending. Ms Carolyn was a walking witness of her faith. There is no doubt that she was met at the gates of heaven and welcomed hearing, "Well, done, my good and faithful servant"!

No matter what health issues she was dealing with, she kept such a positive attitude. If she was not talking about her love for Jesus, she was talking unashamedly of how proud she was of all her children and grandchildren.

I will miss seeing her smile and hearing her talk of her Savior. Oh, for all of us to be able to share her faith as she did.

“ I remember meeting Carolyn when she was 15 and I was 10. Then again at a family reunion a few years ago. Being raised in CA and being a distant cousin ,we didn't know each other well but from all the family stories about Uncle Claude and family I know she was loving and loved by all. May God comfort all who were close to her.

“ I loved Carolyn. She was my sisters best friend 😭 I have known her since I was a little boy and we all went to Monte Sano Baptist Church. Carolyn, my sister, and a couple of her friends used to come to dinner here at our home and Carolyn loved looking at all of EMERY's decorating as everything changes here every few months.....I have such wonderful fond memories of her from childhood...she was a wonderful friend who will be missed terribly! May she find much joy with our Lord in heaven now 🙏🙏🙏

“ Hunter, I remember your mom working in the concession stand during the football games that you and Donald participated in. Your mom was so funny. We always had a great time. She was a good person. She will be missed.
