“ Just some things that mean everything to me, Whitney, Callie, Nat, Kenneth, his best friend Derrick and BG also. OMG! If anyone remembers the fish tank we had on Jordan Drive- BG had bought so many fish for the aquarium and the two beta fish ate all the other ones and BG named them Whitney and Kailey bc we got rid of every female that came around. Lmao. At least Whitney and I just got a good laugh! Noone could ever understand the love we have for you B. The memories are endless!

“ My heart is broken into a million pieces. The thought of you being gone has hit me like nothing else in my life ever has. I am so comforted by the fact that we got to talk about your wishes before we even knew this would happen and that God allowed us the time to talk about everything and for us to pray together more importantly. I remember you saying "How should I pray right K, I cuss too much?" And I told you to talk to him like to would your best friends but to leave out as many as you could. Lol. You said you actually felt his presence while we hung out with Whitney and Kenneth and we all knew it was a God thing that he sent you here that weekend. You enhanced my life with your amazing sense of humor and witty personality, with the undying love that we have shared through those 9 years until the day you passed. You gave me confidence in myself, you showed me how to be the woman I am today and I will stand up taller now and fulfill everything you told me you knew I would be again. Callie and Nate were my world and I know that they were yours and my heart goes out to them and your family regardless of anything else. I know you will be my guardian angel bc even on the worst days through our trials we found a way to encourage each other with a quick hug or a conversation and you were the only man I have ever loved as deeply as I do. You told me that only God could give us a love like that and I know in my heart that it is to be treasured and that he knew I needed to hear that before you passed. Your name, our memories, our pictures, our keepsakes and everything in between will be honored for the rest of my life. Please hold us all through this wake and know that noone in the world could ever compare to you. You were one of a kind and BG I am so thankful for the bond that I got to share with you. I know you are at peace now, I know you are finally at rest in your mind. Just tell God to give me strength bc you leaving has broken me down. I will do everything I can to fix the problems going on and I will try my best to help your family in any way possible. I love you bug, booski, Bloobird... Most of all, my baby boy. Fly High... I know your zooming around heaven as fast as you can right now bc thats the only way you know how to do anything... To the max. Always my baby in my heart, forever you will be. Thank you for never giving up on me and always giving me the little push I needed. Please tell God to send me that somehow throughout my life. All my love is forever with you. -Your Bug
