

Floyd Milburn Wagster III

April 19, 1980 - March 5, 2026

Floyd Milburn Wagster III, born on April 19, 1980, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, passed away on March 5, 2026, at the age of 45. He was a cherished son, brother, and father, leaving behind a legacy of love and adventure for his family and friends. Floyd grew up in a close-knit family, working alongside his father in their three-generation sheetrock finishing business, a trade that brought him immense pride and a strong work ethic.

Floyd was a passionate musician, known for his talent on the guitar. He had a gift for performing live, captivating audiences with his songs and energy. His most treasured moments revolved around creating memories with his two beautiful children, enjoying life to the fullest, and embracing every adventure that came his way. He found joy in nature, often hiking in the woods, swimming in the river, and appreciating the beauty of the outdoors.

He is survived by his loving mother, Lisa Wagster; brother, Jason Wagster; sister-in-law, Kayla Wagster; daughter, Marley Vizier; and son, Dillon Kocke. Floyd will be remembered as a kind-hearted individual who would do anything for those he loved. He was always ready to lend a helping hand, embodying the spirit of generosity and friendship. Floyd's adventurous soul and zest for life will be profoundly missed by all who knew him.

Floyd is preceded in death by his father, Floyd Wagster Jr

“ He will be remembered for the great friend and person he was. He was one of my very first friends at 5 years old or so in kindergarten. We had many great and fun times together growing up. He will be missed.
