

Greg Inman

June 18, 1971 - September 28, 2021

Greg Inman was an amazing man that wore many hats. He was a son, husband, father, brother, grandfather, and friend. On September 28, 2021, at age 50, he took off his hats to leave this world wearing the Victor's Crown. Greg's faith was strong and believed that you should be a leader, not a follower, and put others first. It is that servant's heart that will be remembered by the lives he touched. His parents Dale and Rhonda Inman, and brother Jason Inman will never forget. Greg's wife, Tonya Inman, and their 3 sons, Taylor Inman, Mason Inman, and Gabe Inman will carry on his legacy. Please join the family of Greg Inman as they celebrate his life at Abundant Life Church in Denham Springs this Saturday, October 2, 2021. The visitation will begin at 9:00 AM with service at 12:00 PM. Arrangements have been entrusted to McLin & Manley Funeral Home.

“ Tanya, I don't know if you remember me, I'm Tiffany Foster Petersen's mother, Jerri. I remember the two of you fondly from high school. I am deeply sadden for your loss and the loss your sons must feel at this time, along with his entire family. I felt I needed to write, Tiffany had been keeping me posted about his illness and I lost my husband a little over 3 years ago and the journey you are about to embark will be a hard road to travel. Depend on your family and they will help you grieve. I will pray for you. Another reason I'm posting is because I was close to a special group of your peers in high school and when it came time for graduation I had no idea what to get the kids Tiffany went to school with for one exception, and that was Greg. I bought him a really nice pen because I told him he'd need it because he was going places and people would need to remember his name. I see from the other posts I've read about your husband, I was correct You could tell that about him even when he was in high school. He was a special young man. I want to thank him by way of you for that wonderful memory. Remember God will walk with you every step of the way! Pray for peace and understanding, I will do the same for you.

“ To the Family of Greg Inman: My heart is so heavy to learn of the passing of Greg. The first time I met Greg, I felt immediately that I had met a servant of God, a devoted family man, and a power champion of the credit union movement. Without exception, every encounter with Greg left me feeling valued, uplifted, and encouraged. He is the perfect combination of gentleness, humility, humor, intellect, and quiet strength. We never had a conversation that did not include an update on our families, and I will always remember the twinkle in his eyes when speaking about all of you. May the comfort and peace of Christ be with you during this time. You are in my prayers.

“ Greg was a member of the LSU University College Advisory Board with me for many years. He was also a trusted member of the Neighbors FCU management team. Greg solved several problems for me as to my loans and accounts. He was always friendly, helpful, and honest. A man with unquestioned integrity. Greg was as respected in the business world as much as he is loved, and will always be loved, by his family and friends.

My deepest condolences to Greg's family. May the great love you shared together sustain you through these days of grief. With God's help, may you be comforted; trusting that you will be reunited with him beyond this world. Sincerely, Steve Carleton

“ To the Greg Inman Family,
I was shocked and saddened to read of Greg's passing. I taught him and Tonya at Walker High. What an amazing young man he was! As educators, we aren't privileged enough to get many students like him. He was a great student and a gentleman, even in his teens. Please accept my heartfelt condolences.

Greg was the epitome of a servant leader, and did so much for his community and the credit union movement he was so deeply engaged in. I have had so many calls this week with many of his friends and peers reminiscing on stories of the past...an amazing man, leader and child of God.

“ It is so difficult to accept that we will no longer be able to talk and laugh together with Greg and learn from his leadership. He was a kind and caring man of God and this shined through in all that he did. He worked hard, but always cared about the people not just the work. I am so grateful for all the years I was able to work with him as he volunteered countless hours with the CUNA Councils. I will continue to lift his family up in prayer and ask for God's strength and love to surround them. Greg is in the loving arms of Jesus and was welcomed home with open arms as "thy good and faithful servant" but we sure miss him here on earth.

“ On behalf of Louisiana Federal Credit Union, I want to express our heartfelt sorrow for the loss of one of the most respectful individuals we all knew. I personally had the privilege to work with Greg in many volunteer capacities where Greg was a stellar professional. He also worked with our staff during his time with his former employer.
