“ I went to 2nd or 3rd grade with Harris. I remember when he lost his dad in an accident due to heavy fog. It's funny how certain events follow you through life. I drive a semi for a living and everytime I run into heavy fog I say a prayer for Harris. He was a gentle giant even in grade school. I just decided to look him up on social media. So sorry for your loss. Hugs and prayers from a former classmate
