Before Jacob got bit by the bug called drugs, he had a wonderful sense of humor. He would find humor in everything. One could always count on a good belly laugh whenever Jacob was around.

Jacob adored his children. When he was with his son, his smile was pure love. When he worked, he worked hard. He put his all into everything he did.

Jacob was a great defender of the less fortunate. He used to say "Don't judge someone because they are homeless. You don't know what they've been through". Had Jacob survived he would have been a strong advocate for the homeless and less fortunate.

To anyone reading this please be kind to the ones on drugs. See the person, not the drugs. Not one single person wants to be addicted. Show them some kindness. Give them a smile. Offer them a coke or water. That would mean the world to them. Just one simple act of kindness will let them know that someone sees them. Sees them and not the drugs.
