

Jennifer Diane Earles

April 2, 1970 - January 8, 2026

Jennifer Dianne Earles, born on April 2, 1970, in Denham Springs, Louisiana passed away on January 8, 2026, in Denham Springs, Louisiana, leaving an indelible mark on the lives of those who knew her. She was a devoted caretaker. Jennifer dedicated her life to serving others, continually surrendering to God's will. Her pure heart and unwavering commitment to helping others were evident in every aspect of her life.

Jennifer was an avid Bible study enthusiast, diving deep into scripture, which enriched her spiritual journey and strengthened her intimate relationship with God. She followed closely to the footsteps of Jesus. Her creativity blossomed in her hobbies, where she took pleasure in painting and transforming old objects into beautiful new creations. Jennifer's whimsical and nurturing spirit made her a joy to be around, as she was always eager to check in on family and share meaningful conversations. Her vast knowledge and warm demeanor allowed her to engage in thoughtful and deep discussions on a myriad of topics for hours on end. Jennifer never met a stranger in public. She made it a goal to enlighten anyone's day with her presence.

She is survived by her beloved mother Mamie Dianne Patterson, daughters Jessica Morris and Samantha Tarkington, sisters Jan Earles Schexnayder and Jill Earles, brothers Chris Earles and Jae Earles, and her cherished grandchildren, Quinten Rowe jr, Natalie Palmer, Justin Rhodus, Evan Huffman, and Jason Alexander Berg jr. Preceded in death by her fathers James A. Earles and Norman savage. Jennifer's legacy of kindness, patience, and Christ-like love will forever live on in the hearts of her family and friends.

Arrangements have been entrusted to McLin Funeral Home. Online condolences may be shared at www.mclinfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

ST

“ So patient, kind and caring. Will be missed and always loved. Singing with the angels as she was always found doing around the house. She was know by everyone without even trying, she made a impression on everyone she came in contact with. ”

Samantha Tarkington - January 28 at 12:08 PM

TA

Always in my prayers

Todd ahee - January 29 at 12:08 AM

TA

She will always be missed in love she was a very sweet woman that I had the pleasure of meeting and will never forget

Todd ahee - January 29 at 12:09 AM