

Jerry C. Morgan Sr.

July 29, 1934 - December 31, 2025

Jerry Caldwell Morgan Sr. passed away peacefully in his home in Walker, Louisiana, on Wednesday, December 31, 2025, at the age of 91 years and 5 months.

Jerry was born on July 29, 1934, in Wisner, Louisiana. He graduated from Wisner High School and went on to earn his master's degree plus 30 additional graduate hours from Southeastern Louisiana University.

Jerry married his high school sweetheart, Ann Jennings Morgan, on September 11, 1953. Together, they shared 70 wonderful years of marriage, standing side by side through life's joys and challenges.

Jerry was a man of strong Christian faith. His faith guided his life and was evident in the way he loved his family, served others, and lived with humility and kindness. He found strength and comfort in his relationship with Christ, which remained central throughout his life.

He dedicated 27 years to education as a teacher, coach, and principal, leaving a lasting impact on countless students. Jerry played an instrumental role in helping establish Walker High School's football program and in the construction of Wildcat Stadium. His passion for mentoring children and guiding young people defined his career and legacy.

Outside of education, Jerry was a gifted carpenter, well known for building porch swings and completing many projects for his beloved wife. He found joy in life's simple pleasures, including feeding birds and caring for stray animals that crossed his path.

Jerry was a devoted husband and father, and above all, he cherished his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, whom he adored deeply.

Jerry is survived by his two sons, Jerry C. Morgan Jr. and wife Becky, and Bobby Morgan and wife Kim; two granddaughters, Heather Boley and husband Wesley, and Hope Valenti and husband Jake; three great-granddaughters, Whitney Boley, Emma Valenti, and Ava Valenti; and one brother, Phillip Morgan and wife Nyla.

He was preceded in death by his parents, S.A. and Sara Morgan; sisters, Peggy McMannis and Betty Talbert; and brothers, Robert Morgan, Edward Morgan, Richard Morgan, Tommy Morgan, and Bruce Morgan.

“ I am truly sorry for the passing of Jerry Morgan. He taught me Algebra
In high school which I had no clue as to what I was doing. He gave up his recesses to help me. I passed but barely. You have been an incredible asset to the Walker community and more. Rest in peace with our Heavenly Father.

Jerry Morgan has left here but he is alive in his football players' hearts and stories they tell repeatedly at reunions and gatherings with laughter and fondness. I played my senior year on his 1960 team at WHS. Coach Morgan was a man's man and a moral one, a man worth remembering.
