“ I've been trying to find my dear Jessica for 3 years now, ever since we were separated when I had an accident and was hospitalized for 6 months.

My cell phone was destroyed in my accident, and that was the only means I had of contacting her. When I got out of the hospital here in Lafayette, I immediately started looking for her to no avail.

Just in the last few days, I resurrected the desktop computer I used when Jessica and I were together, specifically to look for any leads I may have left on it to help me find her. I found several, and I was able to trace her up until a couple of years ago, when they all came to a halt.

This morning, with a distinct feeling of dread, I began looking for her in Baton Rouge, and after only a few keystrokes, my worst fear was confirmed on this page by doing a search that included her middle name.

Jessica and I were only together for about 6 months, and only saw each other 2-3 days a week, as our work schedules permitted, but I fell in love with her quickly.

She was beautiful, inside and out, quick-witted, intelligent, compassionate, and more fun to be with than any person I have ever known.

I had her admitted to Our Lady Of The Lake Hospital once, here in Lafayette, for a very serious blood infection she had contracted, just before my accident.

She was in the hospital for a month, and I visited her every single day until she was discharged, then arranged for her new residence before I was hospitalized myself with a broken back.

Now, I have a broken heart.

Dear Jessica, I pray that you are at peace now, in God's loving arms. Your time on this Earth was far too short, but God knows that you brightened the lives and touched the hearts of all who knew you, as I did.

My sincere condolences go to your family and many friends, whom I never had the honor of meeting. I loved our Jessica deeply, as did you, and she will forever be in my heart, a much cherished memory that will live on forever.
