

Kelly Sue Hall Stafford

January 14, 1969 - February 14, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Kelly Sue Hall Stafford, who left this world on February 14, 2025, at the age of 56, surrounded by her son and family. Born on January 17, 1969 and a native to Saint Amant, LA; Kelly was a beloved wife, sister, aunt, mother, grandmother, and friend, whose presence graced the lives of all who knew her. Kelly was known for her infectious laugh and vibrant sense of humor. Her life was filled with joyful moments, woven with love and laughter, leaving an enduring impact on countless lives. Her children will forever remember her as the determined, spontaneous, and hard-working mother and vivacious grandmother that she was. Throughout her life, Kelly explored various careers, ultimately landing on her dream of being a professional hairdresser. Beyond her professional achievements, Kelly's heart was filled with a love for dogs, finding companionship and delight in their presence. Kelly's hobbies were as diverse as her spirit was lively. Among them, she found a special passion for dancing the jitterbug, playing pool, and getting lost in the world of her audiobooks. As we say our goodbyes, we find comfort in the joy she brought into our lives, knowing that Kelly's spirit will forever illuminate our hearts. Kelly is survived by her father, William E. Hall Sr.; brother, William E. Hall Jr.; daughter, MacKenzie Cox; son, Nicholas Duplessis; daughter-in-law, Crystal Duplessis; grandchildren, Cayden, Ethan, and Owen Duplessis; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, in-laws, and friends. Kelly is preceded in joining the Lord by her mother, Patty Lee Hall; brother, Dennis Ray Hall; and a host of others who have gone before her. The family will have a celebration of life for Kelly in the near future, including all those who were close to her. May she rest in eternal peace, forever beloved and never forgotten. Arrangements have been entrusted to McLin Funeral Home. Online condolences may be shared at www.mclinfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

MC

“ I met Kelly when I moved to St. Amand in 7th grade and she quickly became my only friend. We had so many firsts together. She was beside me in my wedding , at the hospital with my first child and I returned the favor for her. , she was a rock for me in my lowest times. I will never forget my wild free spirited friend . Fly high Kelly until we meet again.

Mary Castleberry - March 03, 2025 at 10:32 PM

“ So sorry to hear this Kelly & I worked together at Wonder Cuts years ago she was always such a good friend & always fun to work with & go out with & the late night at Waffle House she had such a big heart & infectious laugh she will be missed Much Love To Family & Friends God Bless Fly High Kelly ❤️🙏❤️

February 20, 2025 at 01:02 AM

MC

“ My mama was something for sure. I really feel like I spent my whole childhood in a musical she's saying so much random words and songs and feelings and couldn't carry a tune in a bucket not even with a lid on it. Growing up she and Terry gave us a great childhood private school and camping trips and I stayed punished she called me cinda (short for Cinderella of course) and Ill never forget her singing that lil ditty to me like she knew I was not about to clean that chimney it was so dumb but I still here her voice ringing in my ear Cinderelly cinderelly do the dishes clean the chimney ok well fold the socks lil punished girl.... I miss my mama.... All her great advice and it was always in trade on her getting foot rubsshe was my best friend and the only one that really knew me...and knew how to be on my side no matter what. I don't know what I'll do now when I need to make crushed pineapple cake....

Mackenzi cox - February 16, 2025 at 10:44 PM

“ Kelly would light up the room with her presence. She was so much like her loving mother, Patty, making people feel like laughing and enjoying life to the fullest.

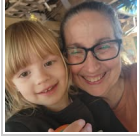

Mary Lou Lindsey - February 16, 2025 at 02:53 PM

“ Mallory Oubre lit a candle in memory of Kelly Sue Hall Stafford

Mallory Oubre - February 15, 2025 at 11:00 PM

“ I have so many good memories of Kelly. I'm saddened by her loss and that we lost touch through the years. My sympathies for her family during this time.

Mallory Oubre - February 15, 2025 at 11:00 PM