The Whitehead family would like to thank the Mary Bird Perkins doctors, nurses, social worker, and especially his "popeye angels," who saw him through many months of care, as well as Dr. David Fontenot and the staff at the Baton Rouge Clinic, and a special "thank you" to everyone at The Crossing who helped Levon live pain free in his final days.

Services will be held at McLin and Manley Funeral Home in Walker, LA on Saturday, February 4, 2017, 1 PM – 3 PM. In lieu of flowers, Levon's wish, and his family's, is simply for all to love and be kind to each other every day.

“ My name is Kenneth George. I'm a friend and former co-worker of Levon at Georgia Pacific. I have to say that I'm been truly blessed to have worked with Levon. He made being at work fun. Though small in stature he was one of the toughest !!! Smartest !!! and most Loyal friends that I've ever known. Even though i am deeply saddened the memories of the joy and laughter that we had together at work will be everlasting. My prayer for Connie and the rest of the Whitehead family will continue.

“ I know levon loved his family and friends unconditionally. Levon tried to help everyone he met that needed a hand. If he saw you were in need and he had it he made sure you got it. He never forgot his past or his friends he grew up with. He often spoke of his hunting buddies and the fun they had. Although as time moved on and they did too he never loved them any less. Levons body might have failed him as his cancer spread but his memories of all his past family and friends never did. Levon would have wanted them to always remember the fun and all they shared as he did quite off over the years. He loved his daughter and was so proud of her for going up to be such a strong woman and fantastic mother and wife. His grandchildren were the apple to his eyes. He loved them more than they could ever know and wanted them to always do the best they could at anything they tried. We will miss peepaw and always hold him close to our hearts. ..I know this because levon was my best friend and my soulmate. ...the love of my life....my heart hurts to know he is gone..but he will never be forgotten. .. May all that loved him find peace in knowing that he always loved you back.....
