

Logan Alexis Loy McDonald

October 23, 1995 - November 21, 2022

Logan Alexis Loy McDonald was born on October 23, 1995 and died suddenly and tragically on November 21, 2022. Logan was a beautiful girl, with the sweetest soul and a smile that could light up a room. Her brown eyes always held a mischievous sparkle and she loved to make people laugh.

Unfortunately, somewhere along the way, Logan lost her shine. She struggled for many years with addiction and mental illness. She tried multiple times to get clean, but sadly, she just never could fight the demons off. I know most have written her off as an addict that got the ending she deserved. But, I want people to know that Logan was so much more than an addict. She was a daughter, mother, sister, granddaughter, aunt, niece, cousin, and a friend to many. She was a sweet, kind soul, that loved hard and big and that truly wanted to be released from her demons. Although she will be missed beyond measure, I know that she is now free. Free from heroin, free from her demons, and I have no doubts that she is in heaven celebrating her newfound sobriety. Logan leaves behind two beautiful children, Aniah and Joseph. She is also survived by her mother, Michelle Beeson Freeman and her step-father Nick Freeman, her father Slade McDonald and step-mother Chrissy Stephens, two sisters, Devon Beeson (Chase) and Marshall Perkins (Jordan), and their children, Laynie, Chason, and Hadley, her step brother Hunter, her grandmothers, Cindy Beeson Marshall (Kenny) and Fay McDonald, step-grandparents Walter and Iris Freeman, aunts Laura Vidal, Brandy Kerley, and Amanda Forbes, and her Uncle Shane McDonald. Logan had many cousins that she loved and adored, including Daughton Burgess, whom she was very close to. Logan is preceded in death by her grandfather Willie McDonald, better known as, Grumpy.

The Family takes comfort in knowing that our beautiful brown eyed girl has finally found her peace.

Logan's remains will be cremated and her family will hold a small, private service in the upcoming days.

Arrangements have been entrusted to McLin and Manley Funeral Home. Online condolences may be left at www.mclinfuneralhome.com

“ So many memories with my girl. From 6 th grade & on, she had the sweetest mom and sisters. Spent so many nights,days,weeks & weekends at Logan’s house and mine. She knew my entire life & all my secrets, so crazy that she always told me more than I can count that she will take all our secrets & my secrets to her grave && that she did!!! Dang, I miss my girl. Her entire self was so infectious. She’s one of the few I could always be myself around her. Everytime I needed her or her loyalty some way she always pulled thru for me, even when either one of us had a fist fight with other people, she always had my back side and front and best believe I always returned the favor!!! I miss you LoBug, your best girl forever! Save me a spot in paradise!!! Praying for her sisters, mom,stepdad & her 2 babies.

*My sons and I (Patrick Bush and Cody Godwin) are very sad to hear about this news. Logan was one of the sweetest persons I have ever met. She was never discarded by myself nor my sons. We loved her so much. I think of her everyday. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. Rest in peace lovely girl.
Love you always.....Barbara Grayson*
