“ Lorraine was 'My Best Friend I Never Met'. She and I shared a remarkable friendship through email and texting during the last year of her life. She was a victim saint and loved by many who knew her strengths. But most of all, she was a child of God and never forgot that position she held with Him. Her faith and her reality, her deep understanding of what matters in this life is what I will always hold dear. I miss my friend every day and know she is watchful of me from her seat at the feet of Mother Mary in heaven. She was such a good, good woman.

“ I have thought of You and Your Brother often. It saddened Me to learn you had cancer. But You fought the good fight and are now enjoying Heaven. No tears, no pain, no sickness, no sorrow. You will be missed until We see you again. My sincere condolences to the Family and Friends. Your old neighbor & school friend from Pride.

“ Lorraine was a wonderful blessing to the Louisiana Interchurch Conference where she served as assistant to the executive director. She was always cheerful, helpful and diligent in her work. Members of the LIC will miss her. She rests from her labors on this earth and is now surrounded by God’s love through Jesus and all the company of Heaven! Alleluia!

“Cori, James, and the rest of the family, please know that my thoughts are with you now. My loss pales in comparison to yours. Lorraine and I have been friends for decades and most of that time, I’ve lived over a thousand miles away. Fortunately for me, Lorraine was a writer and she was always happy to catch up if it had been a long time since we’d corresponded. She mostly spoke of her grandchildren whom she adored. I’m sure you all felt that. What I appreciated most about Lorraine is the way her life was completely committed to God without any judgmental pious church-lady attitude. Lorraine was real. She loved people and she helped them no matter what their situation. Sometimes I even thought she gave too much of yourself and I used to ask her to take care of herself too.

Maybe the only silver lining to her long illness was that we had an opportunity to say to her what we wanted her to know. A few months ago I told her in a text: “You have been a role model to everyone around you for placing faith and family as top priorities. When your time does come, I feel confident that you will hear ‘well done’.”

I owe our friendship to Ken Mayo, our pastor who started a church in Baton Rouge long ago. It was there that I met Lorraine. Bro Mayo also departed this world way too soon for us. I know we can’t be certain how heaven works, but I’m sure if it’s possible, Ken Mayo is embracing Lorraine and showing her around.

Goodbye my dear friend! Until we meet again.
