“ Hey, what can we say, he is our Beau.... I am glad we have our memories,...my boys are happy with their relationship with him,...Dakota said their last words to each other was I love you ,... Tj and Montero love him, a hurt inside, Beau helped me raise them boys,....at a tough point in my life,always making a way...even caring as hard as he did with such determination of right for those boys, he was funny with it...we missed him when he went his own way, but ya can't keep a free spirit bound....he is now having a great reunion, that he wanted, now, and we will one day join...we love you BoBo,....and I know yall are gonna be dropping blessings down for us....til we meet again....

“ I have so many memories I don't know where to begin..Bobo is the brother I never had we shared a bond that words can't begin to describe..we've shared stories we'd never tell another person..we had many sessions under a needle for countless hours perfecting tattoos on me..ones for me..for my sister..my children..a piece that has markings people will never notice his name is infused in my praying/cross that he has a $100 REWARD that I will honor not just to the first who discovered (his deal) but to all who can find its a hell of a puzzle..he truly is a friend/brother of a lifetime I will forever love you my brother and I will miss you everyday

“ About 10 years ago I was entertaining a 5 year old while his grandmother cleaned her house. Rode to the river (Cliff's landing) Bobo was fishing off a dock,when saw us he reeled in his rig ,went to the car and rigged a pole for my young friend! I think that spoke all anyone should need to about the content of his character! RIP my friend
