“ Gamed online for over 20 years with 'Avatar'/'Matsumoto' and spent the last year talking daily and playing games together. This is such a shock as he was so happy to have kosmos in his life and was so happy with getting his training done at work. Just want his family to know how much he ment to a group of gamers online who have been friends together for a very long time. He will be very much missed and touched the lifes of people around the world. From a UK Gamer, Rest in peace my true friend and 'brother' Sleep Well. - RePo Don Eason.
