

Milton Leroy "Buddy" Spiller

November 25, 1934 - December 30, 2016

Milton Leroy "Buddy" Spiller, age 82, a long time resident of Walker, passed away on December 30, 2016. He was born in Watson, LA on November 25, 1934. Buddy was the youngest son of Clyde and Ella Spiller of Denham Springs, being the second youngest of eleven children. He was a retired Masonry Contractor.

Survived by his daughters, Vicki Spiller, Rhonda Melancon and husband Ralph, Julie Vaughn and husband Scott, and son Joshua Spiller; 10 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren; and mother of his children, Mary Alice McCaa; two brothers - George Spiller & Phillip Spiller, four sisters - Maxine Thompson, Jennie Hood, Harriet Thompson and Grace Eccles. Preceded in death by his parents, Clyde Sr. and Ella Spiller, brothers, E.C. Jr. Spiller, S.B. Spiller and Callie Spiller, and sister Johnnie Wheat.

Pallbearers: Landon Melancon, Tristan Vaughn, Duane Dyess, Mark Dyess, Victor "Bo" Jarreau, Victor Jarreau Jr. Honorary Pallbearers: Scott Vaughn, Joshua Spiller

Visitation will be conducted at Revival Temple in Walker, LA on Saturday, January 7, 2016 from 9:30am with services at 12:30pm, conducted by Pastor Wes Courtney. Burial will follow at Vickers Cemetery

Tribute Wall

“ *Mary Alice,
Was very sorry to read about Buddy in the newspaper. Please accept my condolences. Remember me from state dept. of Education? Joann Grimmer.*

joann Grimmer - January 06, 2017 at 02:06 PM