“ I really don't know what to say the world already knows how amazing you are. I'm so glad I was placed with you when I was, you help shaped me up to be the woman I am today I appreciate every life lesson you gave, every kind word a gesture. I'm sorry we never got to have that last lunch save a seat for me. Love you forever Pa!

“ What I remember most about Pamela is how she cared for others above herself. She worked hard to make things happen for her babies, and they loved her so much ☐ be strong, kids! Remember God is your strength☐ love you all...

“ Pam will always be remembered as selfless, loving, and faithful. She would do anything for anyone without expecting anything in return. The photo of her with a flower bouquet was from Mother’s Day. She was making flower bouquets for ladies who couldn’t make it to church that day. She was also one of the most creative people I’ve known. She had such a gift for decorating and making beautiful things out of nothing. She was so talented. She left a beautiful legacy. We miss her so much.

“ She was always so great at crafts and so creative. She had such a giving heart. So many times she would bring my husband and daughter dinner when I would work late. I could never repay her for everything she did for us. I will miss her so much

“To know Pamela was to know what true kindness looked like. She truly had a heart of gold, giving everything she had to everyone she met. Her life was a testament to selfless love, especially when it came to her five children. She lived every moment to provide for them and adore them. Pamela and I shared a history that spanned decades, from our back-to-back birthdays in September to the many highs and lows of life. She was a light that went out far too soon, and I am so grateful for the years of friendship we shared. I love you all with all my heart. Love Charlene ❤️
