

Paul Joey Clement Sr.

November 16, 1966 - March 9, 2019

Paul “Joey” Clement, a resident of Livingston, LA, joined his parents and sister with their Lord in Heaven on March 9, 2019. He is survived by his son, Paul “Joey” Clement Jr. and his wife, Shelby Clement; daughter Brooke Clement; and grandsons, Gage McConahey and Paul Clement III. He is preceded in death by his mother, Jessie Rick; father, George Wells; stepfather, Eldon Clement; and sister Emma Walker. He was born on November 16, 1966, in Independence, LA. He was raised in Husser and played football throughout his high school career in Loranger. When he wasn’t fishing, he spent most of his life repairing and building office equipment as he was known for being very mechanically inclined. Family was a large part of his life and his kids and grandkids were what he was most proud of. A service honoring his life is scheduled for Saturday, March 23 at Satsuma Baptist Church. Visitation will be from 9-10am with the service to follow at 10 am. Brother Brad DeLaughter will lead the Memorial Service. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Joey’s life. Flowers and condolences may be sent to Satsuma Baptist Church at 29880 S. Satsuma Road Livingston, LA 70754.

“ When we were little Uncle Joey and Aunt Kristi took us where we wanted to go. When we would move around they'd send us huge packages for birthdays and all of the holidays even silly ones like Valentines Day. It was nothing but laughs and good times when we were with them. Those are what I will always remember the smiles and good times.
