

Rebecca "Becky " Corkern Amato

August 26, 1947 - October 28, 2020

Rebecca Corkern Amato, a resident of Walker, La. and native of Abbeville, La. passed away on Wednesday, October 28, 2020, at the age of 73, after a prolonged battle with cancer. A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, November 14, 2020, from 5 pm until 8 pm at McLin & Manley Funeral Home, 29419 Walker South Rd, Walker, La. She is survived by her son Frank Dominic Amato, Grandchildren, Kyleigh Nevaeh Amato, Brennan Anthony Amato, and Frank Kenneth Amato; and a multitude of extended family and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband of 41 years, Frank Salvador Amato; Father, Percy Allen Corkern Sr.; Mother, Edna Newman Evans; Brother, Percy Allen Corkern Jr., and Stepmother, Edwina Kemp. She graduated from John Curtis Christian School in 1965; and attended Mississippi College. She was a wife, mother, soccer-mom, and a grandmother who went by "YAYA". She held numerous jobs over the years, the last of which was with the Census Bureau. In her final years, she was a caretaker for her husband, Frank. She loved her family, friends, son, grandchildren, and her many pets she had over the years. She loved attending Saints games and taking care of her plants and garden. “ Becky, Juanita, and I were friends at John Curtis High, She was fun-loving, loved to laugh, and always had something nice to say. After graduating from high school, we all went our own ways, and I lost contact until we recently discovered each other on the great connector, Facebook. I remember her as being cute, cute and possessing the most beautiful hair with never a sign of frizz! <3

“ We have so many fond memories of Becky listening to music in the barn, planting vegetables and stuff in the back yard, the love we had of animals, the birthday parties, her visits, her and Reaghin eating junk food and cokes on the couch telling stories, her teaching me about sweet cornbread and fair life milk. It was always a pleasure to around her with her Infectious smile and giggles. I have learned a lot from her over the years and we all will cherish every memory we have. We were very blessed to have such a beautiful soul in our life.
