

Robert E. Atkinson Jr

October 2, 1952 - May 30, 2025

Robert E. Atkinson, Jr., a resident of Tickfaw, Louisiana, passed away on Friday, May 30, at the age of 72.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 50 years, Gale Broussard Atkinson; his sons, Robo Atkinson (Natalie) and Joshua Atkinson (Melissa); and five cherished grandchildren. He is also survived by his siblings, Dorothy Owens (Jerry), Steve Atkinson (Tootie), Jeanette Smith, and Jackie Atkinson (Marilyn). Robert is preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Jewel Atkinson, and his siblings Joann Graves, Kathy Morgan, John Henry Atkinson, and Betty Jane Parsons.

As a master craftsman and respected home builder, Robert was deeply passionate about his work. His dedication and tireless work ethic not only shaped the homes of many but also laid a strong and enduring foundation for his own family. He will be remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather, and brother.

The family extends heartfelt thanks to the Richard Murphy Hospice House for the compassionate care given to Robert in his final days. In lieu of flowers, contributions made in his memory to RMHH (1109 S. Chestnut St., Hammond, LA 70403) would be deeply appreciated.

Arrangements have been entrusted to McLin Funeral Home. Online condolences may be shared at www.mclinfuneralhome.com

“ My Uncle Robert was always kind to me and was a wonderful builder. We haven't seen each other in years, but I thought of him often. He is with my mom and dad in heaven now. Bless him and his family. Love you Aunt Gail.

“ I remember when we went to a new church and Robert told the Preacher I wanted to sing for everyone and when the Preacher called my name for me to come and sing I just sat there looking around thinking they were calling for someone else and I looked at Robert he was smiling and telling me they want me to sing he said go up there but I told him I can't see and he said you're always singing in the car when we are riding so I just thought you wanted to sing yeah that was Robert so of course I went to sing a song that I didn't even know, but God got me through it and I'm a very blessed woman and my brother Robert Atkinson Junior was loved greatly
