“ We all came together and sang in your honor. I miss you, dad. My love for sports, my musical inclination, my ability to take things apart and fix them, my love for cars, and my inquisitive nature all came from you. Thank you for passing those things down to me. I hope you're rocking out in heaven-- free of pain and worry. I love you forever. ~ Your first baby girl , Amiee~

“ I will always remember Uncle Tommy laughing. He was always happy when I saw him. I love that he loved music so much. It is a Hoffpauir family trait! I love you Uncle Tommy and will miss you!

“ Tommy was always cheerful and kind whenever I saw him. He usually had a smile on his face, even though sometimes life handed him lemons.

His two sisters were my best friends and I had the opportunity to visit with him at their family gatherings from time to time. It was always a pleasant time.

He repaired my freezer when I punctured the wall with a knife while trying to defrost it. He didn't say you stupid woman, he just fixed it and said "that happens a lot" and went on his way. Thanks again Tommy.

“ Even before my brother passed there was not one day that I did t think about him. My house is full of the things that he touched, repaired or installed. My beautiful floor he took 5 weeks to install - because he was a perfectionist, the faucets, door trim, tv mount and electrical work. The coffee we drank together and the politics he tried to coax me into talking about. He had a rough beginning being 3 months premature, and was ill at the end, but he lived his life on his terms, loved people unconditionally, and would give you the shirt off his back if you wanted it. I'll always miss you brother.
