“ I truly miss you :(I still remember the 1st day we met, 29 yrs ago, as if it was last week. And I know that I'll always remember you and the good times that we shared. My favorite trait about you is that you would always make the best out of any situation. I'll always cherish the memories, especially from my childhood. Thank you for all that you have done for me. Thank you for always being there for me. Thank you for always loving me. Today, family and friends gathered to celebrate you. It was a good day but you weren't there...at least not physically. I miss your loudness. I miss your sarcasm. I miss you being there. And I always will. And I promise to make sure Vanessa always remembers her Mawmaw Trich and just how great you were. We love you.

Well, you beat me. I am so sad for this. We shared a lot of time together, good and bad, but let it be known, you always said i was the love of your life. You were my love too. No other woman came close to what you meant to me. I will always miss you. I look forward to the day when we can hold baby Christopher together. I love and miss you. Until we meet again, my love is with you. -Glen-
