“ Mawmaw was an amazing woman. She loved so fiercely, and would do anything for someone else in need. She was a force to be reckoned with when it came to her family. I found out I was pregnant with our little boy at her funeral, and he was born with her eyes. Now I get to tell my kids all the stories of their Mawmaw, so they'll always know that she has so much to do with who I am today. I love and miss her everyday.

“ My deepest sympathy to John and all the family. Trudy worked with me when I was secretary at Brookstown Elementary School. She was a faithful volunteer and gave many hours of service to the school. She was very much appreciated, and it was a pleasure to have worked with her.

“ John:

I find myself without words to express my sadness over the loss of your wife, Trudy; but as Christians who know the plan of God, we can take comfort in knowing that she is now in a state of totally pain-free sleep and that in her next moment of consciousness (which will seem as if no time at all has passed), we will all be together in the everlasting Kingdom of God.

Sincerely,
